ALL AGES

Art Show: Mythical Creatures

May 15–August 19 | West Gallery

In every culture, people create creatures that explain how things work. In the US, we do this when we say that our missing socks must have been taken by a fairy. Artist Amber Arnoldsen highlights a few from around the world that you haven't seen before.

Art Show: Summer Still Lifes

June 9–August 27 | Library Hall Gallery

Megan Trueblood is an Orem-based artist with a focus on still life oil paintings. Her paintings are quiet meditations on the substance and spirit of everyday objects. She captures inspiration through her observations of the world around her as she juggles being a mom and a painter. Open for viewing during Library Hall programs.

Art Show: I'll Come Too and Play with You

August 22–October 28 | West Gallery

Megan Sterne's paintings are a way of remembering and connecting with her children. In her words, "I appreciate watching how my children interpret this often heavy world in which we live through their fresh, wondering eyes. Even the mundane moments in life can be play, whether it be trying to park in a crowded parking lot or waiting for the bus to come."

Art Show: Eclectic Reliefs

August 1–October 31 | East Gallery

Camie Derfler is a relief printmaker from Utah who has worked in this medium for over six years. She finds inspiration in nature and the calming spiritual presence that can be found there. Linoleum printmaking involves carving a drawing into a soft linoleum block, rolling a thin layer of ink over it, and pressing paper on top to transfer the image.
